Financial Services that we provide

What financial services am I authorised to advise you on?

We only advise you after considering your individual objectives, financial situation and needs.

We only provide you with financial advice limited to the following:

- Superannuation, including Self Managed Superannuation Funds ('SMSF')
- Basic Deposit Products

We are not authorised by Merit Wealth to provide you with advice on any other matters, financial services or any other financial product.

Other services

Services outside of the above specific areas of financial advice are not provided under Merit Wealth's Australian Financial Services Licence and Merit Wealth does not train, support or supervise the provision of these other services and has no responsibility in relation to those services.

Examples of the services which Merit Wealth is not responsible if provided by us include:

- Borrowing/lending advice and services (including within a SMSF)
- Taxation services, such as completion of tax returns
- Accounting and audit services
- Administration and compliance of Self-Managed Superannuation Funds
- General insurance services (for example, car insurance)
- Real estate and direct property advice
- Legal services.

Information you will receive

You will be provided with various documents that explain how our recommendations will work towards achieving your goals, the fee and potential conflicts that may exist that could influence the advice provided. These documents are designed to help you make informed decisions about our recommendations.

Statement of Advice

When we provide you with initial personal financial product advice you will receive a written Statement of Advice (SOA) that confirms the discussions you have had with us, the recommendations we are making and the basis for those recommendations. We will also record any further advice we provide to you as a 'record of further advice' and we retain these documents for seven years. You may request a copy of this advice or subsequent records of advice at any time.

Product Disclosure Statements

When a financial product is recommended to you, you will be provided with a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) or other disclosure document issued by the product provider. These documents contain information about the risks, benefits, features and fees payable for the product.

How are we paid for our services

Fees for advice

We may charge you fees for the preparation, presentation and implementation of our advice. These fees will be based on your individual circumstances, the complexity involved in your situation and the time it takes to prepare personal financial advice for you.

We will discuss these fees with you and gain your agreement before we provide you with advice. These fees will also be documented in your Statement of Advice.

Payment methods

In most instances you will be able to select the method of payment. Our fees are invoiced to you directly, all fees relating to the financial advice provided to you are payable to Merit Wealth and Merit Wealth then passes up to 100% of these fees onto us.

Other Benefits

We may accept alternative forms of remuneration from product or service providers, such as hospitality or support connected with our professional development (e.g. training or sponsorship to attend conferences) up to a specified amount. We maintain a register detailing any benefit that we receive up to this specified amount. A copy of the register is available on request.

In the event that our advice results in you requesting that we assist you with ongoing requirements, we may charge additional fees each year to perform this work.

Any benefits that we receive that are relevant to your consideration of our advice to you will be disclosed in the Statement of Advice.

Does your adviser have any associations or relationships?

Tania Wright is an accountant of GMS Financial Services (WA) Pty Ltd, trading as Smith Shearer which provides SMSF accounting services, including the establishment and administration of SMSFs and may therefore benefit from you using their services.

Referral Fees

If a client is referred to us we may pay the referrer a fee. We may also provide the referrer with thank you gifts such as branded promotional items, hampers, gift vouchers etc. We will record the details of any referral fees in the Statement of Advice we prepare for you.

If we refer a client to another service provider they may pay us a referrer fee.

A fee may vary according to the referrer, the referee, the client and financial advice and products involved. The fee may be a percentage of fees or a flat fee. The fee may be paid upfront when a financial service or product is provided or periodically as ongoing fees.

Other payments received by Merit Wealth and associates

Merit Wealth, its associated entities and other authorised representatives of the Merit Wealth Australian Financial Services Licence, may receive other forms of fees, commissions and payments, one-off and ongoing, from financial product providers or other parties. None of these amounts are on-paid to us.

Privacy

We maintain a record of your personal information that includes details of your objectives, financial situation and needs. We also maintain copies of any recommendations that we have made to you. The Merit Wealth Privacy Policy details how we collect, use and protect your personal information.

Please ask us if you would like a copy of the Merit Wealth Privacy Policy or you can view a copy on the Merit Wealth website. If you would like to view your file at any time, please ask us and we will arrange for you to do so.

Professional Indemnity

Merit Wealth holds a Professional Indemnity Insurance Policy, which complies with the requirements for compensation arrangements under the Corporations Act (subject to its terms and conditions). This Policy covers claims relating to the professional services provided by Merit Wealth and its representatives.

Merit Wealth's Professional Indemnity insurance only covers advice in relation to professional services provided by representatives of Merit Wealth while authorised by us, even where that representative has subsequently ceased to be an authorised representative of Merit Wealth.

Anti-Money Laundering

Merit Wealth is required, pursuant to the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 ('AML/CTF') and its corresponding rules and regulations to implement certain customer identification processes. We may be required to obtain information about you at the time of providing financial services to you and from time to time thereafter in order to meet our legal obligations. We have certain reporting obligations pursuant to the AML/CTF Act and information obtained from or about you may be provided to external third parties and regulators in accordance with the requirements imposed on us.

How to instruct us

You may specify how you would like to give us instructions, for example, by phone, fax or email. Alternatively, you may provide instructions to us in person. Where instructions are provided by telephone, these must be confirmed in writing.

Complaints

Please contact us first about your complaint. If your complaint is not satisfactorily resolved by us within 3 business days, please contact Merit Wealth on 1300 785 611 or put your complaint in writing and send to:
